About Schools in Japan

School starts in April in Japan

Japanese schools start in April and graduate in March.

Public schools are free of tuition and textbooks. Educational materials and school lunches are charged. Those who want to put their children in school can apply at City Hall. Most countries except Japan have September enrollment. Note that when you bring your child from your country to Japan, the time of admission is different.

About entering and attending school in Japan.

「Guide for foreign students to start school」 is available to help understand the admissions procedures for Japanese schools,

This is the video about the school system in Japan and the examination to enter high school in Nagano prefecture .

「Guidance for High School Entrance in Nagano」

This is the video about school life in Japanese elementary schools,

「Nice to meet you! Let's be friends」

This video introduces the school events, as well as the customs and rules of school life, daily belongings, and how to spend time at school.

「Tell me about Elementary School in Japan」

School events and belongings vary from school to school and region to region. Please ask at school for details.
